Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection as necessitated by applicant's amendments.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Birkenhagen et al. (US Patent # 3,731,418). Birkenhagen et al. discloses a rifle comprising a stock including a housing, the housing including a housing sheath, a barrel, the barrel including a barrel sleeve, the barrel sleeve removably connecting the housing sheath, the housing sheath including a slot, the slot extending longitudinally along the housing sheath, the housing sheath further comprising means for varying the slot width so that the diameter of the housing sheath adjusts to the diameter of the barrel sleeve and the barrel sleeve being lockable with the housing sheath. Wherein the means for varying the slot width of the housing sheath comprises a first screw spanning the slot and being capable of tension-biasing and a second screw for expanding the slot. (Figures 1-6) The barrel has a forearm fastened to the barrel. The rifle comprises a third screw being capable of tension-biasing, the second screw being disposed along the slot between the first and third screws. Alternatively the rifle comprising a latch and a recess in the barrel sleeve for receiving the latch, the latch including a latch head for locking the barrel sleeve to the housing sheath, the latch being slidable across the longitudinal axis of the housing sheath and the latch head being insertable in the recess in the barrel sleeve (Figures 7 & 8).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 10 and 11 are allowed.
5. Claims 6-9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would possibly be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
